Bangkok’s sizzling street food culture is intoxicating!

When I first came to Thailand in 2009, sticky rice and green curry was the extent of my Thai food knowledge.

But I immediately started learning about Thai food as fast as my growing stomach would allow, sometimes justifying the feasts for the sake of learning more about the cuisine.

My Thai food attraction paired with my obsessive food photography eventually led to the launch of the Eating Thai Food Guide - a compilation of useful tips, meal plans and a mega Thai dish encyclopedia.

I love Thai food so much, I get excited about the next meal, before finishing the one I’m on.

Thanks for downloading this guide and have a great time eating.

One thing you need to know before we start:

When it comes to stir fried Thai food there are 2 main ways to order: râat kâao (dish served over a plate of rice) and gàp kâao (dish and rice served on separate plates).

râat kâao gàp kâao

Now almost all dishes served râat kâao will cost in the 30 - 40 THB ($1 - $1.30) range, while ordering gàp kâao will run you more in the 50 THB ($1.70) range. Ordering your Thai food râat kâao will present you with a never ending Bangkok $1 Menu of options.
Kuay Teow Gai
Chicken Noodle Soup
(gǔay dtĕow gài)
ก๋วยเตี๋ยวไก่

Ingredients: Noodles, chicken, cilantro, bean sprouts, garnishing vegetables

Tip: Find it at street carts where boiled chickens are hanging in the glass cabinet along with a selection of rice noodles below.
10 THB (3 for $1)

Kuay Teow Reua
Boat Noodle Soup
(แกวเตี้ยวเรือ)

Ingredients: Noodles, blood soup, morning glory, pork / beef, pork balls

Tip: I like to eat boat noodles at the bustling Sud Yod Kuay Teow Reua restaurant at Victory Monument or Doy Kuay Teow Reua (ต้อยก๋วยเตี๋ยวเรือ).
30 THB ($1)

Sen Lek Tom Yum
Noodles w/ Spicy Soup
(รู้่น lék dtôm yam)
เส้นเล็กต้มยำ

Ingredients: noodles, red pork, spicy soup, peanuts, herb garnish

Tip: Sen Lek Tom Yum is available in every nook and cranny of Bangkok. Head to Victory Monument for lots of choices.
30 THB ($1)

Kuay Teow Kua Gai
Wide Rice Noodles w/ Chicken and Eggs
(ก๋วยเตี๋ยวคั่วไก่)
กวยเตี้ยวค้าไก่

Ingredients: wide rice noodles, chicken, eggs, spring onions, parsley, black pepper, oil, oyster sauce, soy sauce, fish sauce

Tip: Find it at many street carts throughout Bangkok. Check out the famous Kuay Teow Kua Gai on the side of the street in Yaowarat.
35 THB ($1.17)

Sen Yai Rad Na
Wide Rice Noodles w/ Gravy (เส้นใหญ่ร้าดหน้า)

Ingredients: wide rice noodles, pork, Chinese kale, fermented soybean sauce, flour, gravy, soy sauce, fish sauce, sugar

Tip: Find it at most general Thai restaurants, but also try Ma Yodpak Radna (though a bit more expensive - 50 THB).
30 THB ($1)

Gai Pad Kee Mao Sen Yai
Drunken Fried Noodles
(gài pàt kêe mao sên yài)
ไก่ผัดขี้เมื่อยเส้นใหญ่

Ingredients: rice noodles, assortment of veggies, chicken, basil

Tip: Find it at many general Thai restaurants or neighborhood eateries that serve stir fried dishes.
30 THB ($1)

Pad See Ew
Fried Wide Rice Noodles
(pàt-ṣee-íw)
ผัดซีอีว้า

Ingredients: wide rice noodles, kale, soy sauce, egg, salt, sugar

Tip: Find it at many general Thai restaurants throughout Bangkok.
Kuay Jab Nam Kon
Noodle Rolls in Soup (ก๋วยจั๊บนำข้น)

Ingredients: rice noodle rolls, boiled eggs, pork and parts

Tip: There are a few famous stalls serving kuay jab in Yaowarat (Chinatown) and another place called Kuay Jab Jae-daeng near Victory Monument.
30 THB ($1)

Ba Mee Moo Daeng
Egg Noodles w/ Red Pork
( bà-mèe mŏo daeng)

Ingredients: egg noodles, red pork, crispy pork, peanuts, sugar, cilantro, optional soup broth

Tip: Order this from Bangkok’s fastest street food stall located near Victory Monument.
Yen Ta Fo
Pink Noodle Soup
(yen dtaa fo)
เย็นตาโฟ

Ingredients: wide rice noodles, fermented tofu, squid, fried fish balls, morning glory

Tip: It’s a bit of a sweet bowl of noodles, but Yen Ta Fo is quite popular with local Thais.
Kanom Jeen Nam Ya Kati
Coconut Curry w/ Rice Noodles
(kà-nŏm jeen náam yaa gà-tí)
ขนมจีนนำ้ยำกะทิ

Ingredients: soft rice noodles, coconut cream, fish balls, mixed vegetables

Tip: Makeshift street carts all over Bangkok serve plates of Kanom Jeen with curry and communal plates of herbs and vegetable toppings. Often located in crowded markets for a quick meal / snack.
30 THB ($1)

Pad Thai
Thai Fried Noodles
(ผัดไท)
ผัดไทย

Ingredients: rice noodles, tofu, dried shrimp, peanuts, eggs, chili flakes, sugar, fish sauce, garnish vegetables, oil

Tip: Pad Thai can be found all over Bangkok on the side of the street and also in sit down restaurants. The most famous restaurant in Bangkok is Pad Thai Thip Samai.
35 THB ($1.17)

Yam Woon Sen
Mungbean Noodle Salad (yam ѡุน-sɛn)
ยำวุ้นเส้น

Ingredients: mungbean noodles, shrimp, squid, tomatoes, onions, lime juice, chili peppers, fish sauce

Tip: Most general Thai restaurants will offer a version of Yam Woon Sen. I really like the version at Rod Ded Restaurant on Rang Nam.
14

35 THB ($1.17)

Kuay Teow Lui Suan
Fresh Spring Rolls
(gŭay dtĭeow lui sŭan)
ก๋วยเตี๋ยวลุยสวน

Ingredients: rice noodle sheets, ground pork, carrots, lettuce, peanuts, basil, herbs, eaten with garlic lime chili sauce

Tip: Usually made for take-away on the side of the street or available in markets. The area of Tha Phra Chan has a few good stalls.
Pad Pak Bung Fai Daeng
Stir Fried Morning Glory
(pàt pàk-bûng fai daeng)
ผัดผักบุ้งไฟแดง

Ingredients: morning glory vegetable, garlic, chili, oyster sauce, bean paste, oil

Tip: It’s one of the most standard vegetables served at all general Thai restaurants. If you can see a wok, they should have it.
30 THB ($1)

Suki
Mixed Vegetables Suki (รุ่ง-กี้)
สุกี้ย่างก้น

Ingredients: mixed vegetables, mung bean noodles, garlic, sugar, lime juice, Chinese tofu

Tip: At most general Thai restaurants you’ll be able to order Suki in its dry form (suki haeng) or with soup (suki nam). You can try it at Saw Nah Wang (ร้าน ส.หน้าวัง) near Democracy Monument.
35 THB ($1.17)

Pad Pak Gachet
Stir Fried Water Mimosa (ผัดผักกะเฉด)

Ingredients: water mimosa, garlic, chili peppers, oyster sauce, soy sauce, sugar, oil

Tip: Pad Pak Gachet is available at most general Thai food restaurants on the street. At Kuang Seafoods it’s more expensive, but good.
Khao Moo Daeng
Rice w/ Red Pork (ข้าวหมูแดง)

Ingredients: red roasted pork, crispy pork, sausage, rice, boiled egg, vegetable garnishes, red sauce

Tip: This pork lovers delight is available all over. It’s a bit far, but my favorite is from this little spot in southern Bangkok.
30 THB ($1)

Khao Man Gai
Boiled Chicken w/ Rice
($kâao man gài)
ข้าวมันไก่

Ingredients: rice, chicken, chili sauce, cucumber

Tip: This dish is available in abundance throughout Bangkok. Be on the look out for hanging boiled (white) chickens in a the front glass cabinet in the restaurant. There’s a famous place in Pratunam called Kaiton Pratunam (Ko-Ang) ไก่ตอนประตูนำ้ (โกอาง).
Khao Tom Talay
Rice Soup w/ Seafood (ข้าวต้มทะเล)
Ingredients: rice porridge, mixed seafood
Tip: Khao Tom is a rice soupy porridge dish and I especially like it when it's topped with seafood! Hia Wan Khao Tom Pla (ร้านเสียะหวานข้าวต้มปลา) is amazing.
Khao Pad Goong
Shrimp Fried Rice (ข้าวผัดกุ้ง)

Ingredients: Rice, shrimp, small vegetables, cucumber, garnish

Tip: All general Thai restaurants will serve Khao Pad. Fried rice in Thailand is often drizzled with chilies and fish sauce.
Pad Ga Pao Gai Kai Dao
Chicken Stir Fried with Basil and Chilis + Fried Egg
(ปัตต้าะ ป้อ แก้ ไก่ + ไก่ ดาว)
ผัดกระเพิราไก่ + ไข่ดาว

Ingredients: chicken / pork, Thai basil, chili peppers, green beans, oyster sauce, soy sauce, fish sauce, sugar, garlic, oil, optional fired egg

Tip: Eat Pad Ga Pao at any general Thai restaurant throughout Bangkok. Available everywhere!
Khao Na Bpet
Duck w/ Rice
(ก้าอ น่า บเป็ด)
ข้าหน้าเป็ด

Ingredients: duck, rice, soup, sweet soy sauce, small vegetables, pickled ginger

Tip: The indicator is the roasted ducks hanging in the glass cabinet. Try Rawanstar Restaurant at the Ratchawat Market or Soi 6 Pochana.
Khao Kluk Kapi
Fragrant Shrimp Rice w/ Mixed Toppings
(ข้าวคลุกกะปิ)

Ingredients: rice, shrimp paste, sugar, green mango, egg, string beans, onions, chili peppers, lime, sweet pork

Tip: This dish is often served in markets to-go. You can find it at the Silom Soi 20 market in the early morning.
25

40 THB ($1.34)

Khao Mok Gai
Rice and Chicken Biryani
(ข้าวหมกไก่)

Ingredients: rice, chicken, oil, turmeric, cardamom, variety of spices, cucumber pickle

Tip: Try the hidden Areesaa Lote Dee restaurant located near Khao San Road for excellent chicken and beef biryani.
30 THB ($1)

Khao Ka Moo
Slow Boiled Pork Leg w/ Rice (ข้าวขาหมู)

Ingredients: pork, rice, vegetable garnish, soup

Tip: To find it, look for the giant pots of boiling brown colored pork legs on the streets throughout Bangkok. It’s not the healthiest dish, but the tender pork leg over rice sure is tasty.
30 THB ($1)

Pad Pak Ruam
Mixed Vegetables and Rice
(ผัดผักรวม)
ผัดผักรวม

Ingredients: mixed vegetables, rice, chillies

Tip: You can order this dish at all general Thai restaurants and they will be glad to serve it directly over a plate of rice for just a single buck.
30 THB ($1)

Gai Pad Prik Gaeng
Chicken w/ Chili Paste
(gài pàt prík gaeng)
ไก่ผัดพริกแกง

Ingredients: chicken, red chili paste, green beans, chili peppers, kaffir lime leaves, garlic, soy sauce, oil, sugar

Tip: Order this great tasting Thai dish at any stir fry general Thai restaurant throughout Bangkok.

This is probably one of my favorite quick meals.
30 THB ($1)

Gai Pad Pongali
Yellow Chicken Egg Curry
(gài pàt pŏng gà rèe)
ไก่ผัดผงกะหรี

Ingredients: chicken, yellow curry, onions, chillies, egg

Tip: A mild yet flavorful curry that is excellent over rice. Get it at all general Thai stir fry restaurants.
Khao Kai Jeow Moo Saap
Omelet w/ Pork over Rice
(ข้าวไข่เจียวหมูสับ)

Ingredients: eggs, minced pork, rice, soy sauce

Tip: It’s Thai comfort food at its finest and should be available at just about every restaurant in Thailand.
Pad Kana Pla Kem
Chinese Kale w/ Salt Fish
(ปัตคะน้าปลาเค็ม)

Ingredients: Chinese kale, salted fish, soy sauce, oyster sauce

Tip: The salted fish really flavors the leafy kale well. This dish is available at many general Thai street food stalls throughout Bangkok.
32

40 THB ($1.30)

Hoy Tod
Oyster Omelet
(hŏi tôt)
หอยทอด

Ingredients: oysters / mussels, flour, oil, bean sprouts

Tip: It is only available at designated street stalls and sometimes at Pad Thai stalls as well. One of my favorites in Bangkok is at Nai Mong Hoy Tod.
Pad Kanaeng Goong
Brussels Sprouts w/ Shrimp
(ผัดแขนงกุ้ง)
Ingredients: brussels sprouts, shrimp, soy sauce, fish sauce, oyster sauce
Tip: Ask for this dish at general Thai street restaurants, they may or may not have it, all depends if they have brussels sprouts.
35 THB ($1.17)

Mungsawirat
Mixed Vegetarian Plate

Ingredients: Plate of rice topped with 2 side vegetarian dishes.

Tip: Yes, it’s vegetarian, but it’s extremely delicious food! Head to Ari BTS station and eat it at Baan Suan Pi.

Are you vegetarian? The Vegetarian Thai Food Guide is now available.
35 THB ($1.17)

Khao Yam
Spicy Rice Salad
(ข้าวยำ)

Ingredients: rice, dried shrimp, coconut, chili peppers, lemon-grass, kaffir lime leaves, mango, green beans, lime, bean sprouts, spicy sauce

Tip: A beautiful version of this southern Thai speciality is available at Lan Puk Tai Dao near Siriraj Hospital.
30 THB ($1)

Nam Prik Makam
Tamarind Chili Sauce w/ Vegetables
นำพริกมะขาม

Ingredients: Tamarind, garlic, chilies, mix of spices, raw vegetables

Tip: My favorite place to eat Nam Prik Makam is at Lan Luam Dtaï southern Thai restaurant near Siriraj Hospital.
30 THB ($1)

Moo Satay
Pork Satay
(mŏo ʂà-dté)
หมูสะเต๊ะ

Ingredients: pork, peanut sauce, cucumber pickles

Tip: There are specific moo satay stalls set up all over Bangkok. For an impressive display try Dee Moo Satay near Wong Wian Yai.
50 THB ($1.58)

Gai Yang
Grilled Chicken
(gài yâang)
ไก่ยาง

Ingredients: grilled chicken

Tip: This is one of the more expensive items on the Bangkok $1 Menu, but a giant piece of chicken for just 50 THB? That’s still a pretty good deal.
10 THBs (3 for $1)

Moo Ping
Grilled Pork Stick
(mŏo bpîng)
หมูปิ้ง

Ingredients: grilled pork

Tip: Moo Ping is one of the most common on-the-go snacks in Bangkok. A few sticks of pork and a bag of sticky rice makes a tasty snack. Siam area is full of freshly grilled skewers.

Prices really range depending on size of meat on stick.
Larb Moo
Minced Pork Salad (laap mŏo)

Ingredients: minced pork, onions, chili flakes, mint, toasted rice flakes, lime juice, fish sauce, sugar

Tip: Larb Moo is a popular Thai dish available at all Isaan food restaurants throughout Bangkok. It’s often eaten with sticky rice and accompanied by Som Tam (green papaya salad).
Som Tam Ponlamai
Thai Fruit Salad
(ส้มตำผลไม้)

Ingredients: Mixed fruit, string beans, chilies, fish sauce, lime juice, peanuts

Tip: The best Som Tam Ponlamai I’ve ever had was at the Chamlong’s Asoke vegetarian food court near the Chatuchak weekend market.
Som Tam Thai
Thai Green Papaya Salad (ర్మం dtam tai) ส้มตำไทย

Ingredients: green papaya, tomato, dried shrimp, lime juice, peanuts, cane sugar, tamarind juice, fish sauce, garlic, chili peppers

Tip: Som tam is one of the most abundant dishes in all of Thailand. You can try Hai Som Tam Convent or Soi Polo.
Yam Mamuang
Green Mango Salad
(yam มะม่วง)
ยำมะม่วง

Ingredients: green mango, chillies, dried shrimp, lime juice, fish sauce, sugar

Tip: Should be available at most Isaan style Thai restaurants throughout Bangkok. It offers a nice twist to the common som tam recipe (made with green papaya).
30 THB ($1)

Tam Sua
Som Tam w/ Rice Noodles (dtam sua)
ตำซั่ว

Ingredients: green papaya, chillies, soft rice noodles, peanuts

Tip: Available at many normal Isaan som tam restaurants, just ask for “tam sua” instead of som tam!
Nam Kang Sai
Mixed Ice w/ Toppings
(นำแข็งใส)

Ingredients: ice, syrup, various toppings

Tip: You can get this refreshing dessert all over Bangkok, but they make a delicious one over at Param 9 Kai Yang.
30 THB ($1)

Nam Ponlamai Ban
Mixed Fruit Shake
(น้ำผลไม้ปั่น น้ำผลไม้ปั่น)

Ingredients: mixed fruit shake

Tip: Head over to the entrance of Nang Loeng market to get a dose of Bangkok’s best mixed fruit shake.
Itim Kanom Pang
Ice Cream Sandwich
(ài-dtàim kà-nöm bpang)
ไอติมขนมปัง

Ingredients: Coconut ice cream, sticky rice, peanuts, sweet bread

Tip: Small pushcarts throughout Bangkok serve street ice cream straight outta-the-bun.
Bua Loy Nam King
Mochi Rice and Sesame Balls in Ginger Water
(bua-loi náam kĭng)
บัวลอยน้ำขิง

Ingredients: Mochi rice flour, ginger water, sugar, black sesame seeds

Tip: There is a great stall selling Bua Loy on Yaowarat (Chinatown) Road, opposite from White Orchid Hotel.
Khao Neow Dam Sang Kaya
Black Sticky Rice w/ Custard
(ѩао ้еow dam 单职业-้้ย้้) ข้าวเหนียวดำสังขยา

Ingredients: black sticky rice, egg custard, coconut cream sauce

Tip: Get it for a sweet little breakfast treat from a famous stall on Silom Soi 20 in the morning.
Gluay Tap
Roasted Bananas in Syrup (ก้นยั้ย táp)
กล้วยทับ

Ingredients: bananas, sweet sugary syrup

Tip: Get an entire bag of roasted bananas covered in caramel like sugar sauce for just 20 THB.
